Other Professional Employment

United Nations Compensation Commission (“UNCC”), Geneva, Switzerland

Legal Officer, February 2000 to December 2004

The UNCC was formed to process claims and award compensation for losses resulting from Iraq’s invasion and occupation of Kuwait in 1990. Duties included the review and administration of claims for construction losses, Kuwaiti corporate losses, and individual losses (the aggregate amount of which exceeded $1 billion). The work involved the development and application of new international legal guidelines to govern mass claims processing in the context of a new forum to address such claims.

Katten Muchin & Zavis (“KMZ”), Los Angeles, California

Partner, February 1995 to December 1999

Associate, July 1993 to January 1995

My practice involved a wide range of trial, arbitration, and appellate work. A significant area of my practice was the representation of secured creditors (large institutional lenders) in actions to enforce their rights in state and bankruptcy courts against debtors in default. I also handled a wide variety of disputes for major entertainment clients.

Dewey Ballantine, Los Angeles, California

Associate, August 1987 to June 1993

Chambers of Senior U.S. District Judge Albert Lee Stephens, Jr., Los Angeles, California

Judicial Clerk, May 1986 to June 1987

Widett, Slater & Goldman, P.C., Boston, Massachusetts

Associate, August 1985 to May 1986

From January 2005 to June 2006, I lived in Geneva, Switzerland and engaged in independent research and writing in order to prepare for my attempt to enter the legal academy. During this time, I wrote my first two law review articles.

Experience (in all years of private practice) includes role as lead trial counsel in trials in U.S. District and Bankruptcy Courts, and role as appellate counsel in California and U.S. courts. Experience also includes the taking or defending of over 100 depositions, and the closing of a corporate asset sale.

Professional Activities during Practice

Panel Member for jury trial seminar at international lawyers conference in Santa Monica, California, 1998. Conducted mock jury trial before the Honorable Lance Ito for the benefit of attendees of conference.

Conducted mandatory continuing legal education seminars on taking and defending depositions on behalf of local bar organization in Los Angeles, 1996 and 1997.

Member of Use of Force Task Force of Los Angeles Police Commission, 1996
Purpose of task force was to monitor response of Los Angeles Police Department to issues raised by Christopher Commission Report concerning police use of force. This Task Force was formed to address community issues in the aftermath of the Los Angeles riots.

Bar Memberships

Admitted to practice in Massachusetts (active)

Admitted to practice in California (inactive)
