Dear Roger Williams University School of Law Student:

On behalf of the Rhode Island Bar Association, I extend our congratulations on your admission to the Roger Williams University School of Law and our best wishes for success in your legal studies. The Rhode Island Bar Association looks forward to welcoming you into our wonderful profession.

As an introduction to the Bar, we encourage you to consider applying for a law student associate membership. This membership entitles you to receive guest privileges to attend the Bar's committee meetings and invitations to participate in Rhode Island Bar Association programs. Law student associate membership benefits include:

- Free, 24-hour, 7-days-a-week access to the online legal research library known as Casemaker (soon to transition to FastCase), and other resources available through the Members Only section of the Bar's website
- Access to the Bar's informative and thought-provoking magazine Rhode Island Bar Journal
- Discounts to Bar-sponsored Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminars
- Attendance, as a guest, at Bar Committee meetings focusing on a wide range of matters relating to legal practice. This is a great way to network, especially if you might be practicing law in Rhode Island. In particular, we recommend you join the New Lawyers Committee as it is a great place to get acquainted with recent Bar members.

We are also excited about the opportunity to share the Bar's headquarters with you, as its well-designed interior spaces, coupled with advanced technology combine the best high value features and benefits for our members and for public services. I encourage you to stop by for a tour, when it is safe to do so, and to learn more about what the Bar can do for you.

I look forward to welcoming you to our Association. As a courtesy, I am waiving the dues for first year law students for the class of 2024. You can apply for your law student associate membership by using the application form attached to this letter. You may also contact the Rhode Island Bar Association to request a law student associate membership application by telephone at (401) 421-5740 or via email at scavalloro@ribar.com.

We hope you will consider the Rhode Island Bar Association as a valuable resource now and in the future.

Sincerely,

Lynda L. Laing
